

BOLT SCATTERED POLE OVER TOWN

Iselin Liberty Staff Smashed;
Sticks Go Through House
Tops and Windows.

NEW ROCHELLE, May 18.—During a severe storm here to-day the giant liberty pole presented to New Rochelle last year by Columbus O'Donnell Iselin was hit by a bolt of lightning and shattered, while windows were broken and other damage done by flying splinters.

The crash of thunder accompanying the lightning awakened everybody in town, and Main street, on which the pole stood, was quickly filled with persons in alarm.

The pole, which was the biggest in Westchester County, stood in front of the City Hall, at Main and Mechanic streets. It was in two sections with a copper cap at the top and 100 feet high. The bolt struck near the base of the upper part of the pole.

Great splinters weighing 200 pounds were carried a distance of several blocks, and the pavement for three blocks along Main street burst at the kindling wood yard, being covered with splinters that ranged from toothpick size to pieces that took four men to carry. Bits of the wood were found within a radius of one mile of the City Hall. Some were picked up on Centre avenue, a half mile to the west of City Hall, and some were found on Echo avenue, a half mile to the east.

One big piece of the pole crashed through the skylight of the Pioneer Building, and another went through the roof of the Bailey House, which adjoins the New Rochelle Trust Company building on Main street. The windows of several stores on Main street were smashed by flying pieces of wood.

The great top of the pole, which was the portion destroyed, was the largest taken from the yacht Columbia, sailed by Mr. Iselin's brother, C. Oliver Iselin, which defeated Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock II, for the American Cup.

No one is reported to have been injured in the storm. The Iselin family, who live in the Iselin Hotel, which is near the City Hall, says that he was thrown out of bed and thought that an earthquake had visited the town.

Police Headquarters in the City Hall, and Sgt. Charles F. Smith, who was doing desk duty, says that he was merely pitched out of his chair by the shock.

KILLED BY EXPRESS TRAIN.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CAMDEN, N. J., May 18.—Nathan Sharp, seventy-six years old, a milk dealer, living in the suburbs, was killed by the Atlantic City express early to-day. Sharp was driving his wagon across the track and probably failed to hear the train.

J. R. VAN WORMER NOW RECOVERING

Twice Attacked by Vertigo on Street and Treated at Roosevelt Hospital.

John R. Van Wormer, President of the New York Athletic Club, and Manager of the Lincoln Trust Company, who was twice prostrated on the street by vertigo last night, was much better to-day. His physicians believe he will be able to return to business to-morrow. He is suffering from a severe cut over the eye and the bruises received when he fell to the sidewalk.

Mr. Van Wormer was walking home to No. 34 West Fifty-seventh street, when at Eighth avenue and Fifty-seventh street he was attacked by vertigo. He was picked up unconscious by a policeman and sent to the Roosevelt Hospital. There his identity was discovered and his family physician, Dr. W. A. Bartlett, of No. 7 West Forty-ninth street, was called. The hospital authorities were of the opinion that Mr. Van Wormer was suffering from a slight attack of apoplexy, and that he should not be moved. Dr. Bartlett demurred, and after having his wound dressed Mr. Van Wormer started home. This was at 8 o'clock. He left the hospital and wandered about on Eighth avenue for three hours until he was seen by a special policeman who, on recognizing him, took him home. His physician was again called and was greatly astonished to find that his patient had been wandering around in a daze since he left the hospital. Mr. Van Wormer remembered nothing until after his fall at Eighth avenue and Fifty-seventh street.

"I found that Mr. Van Wormer was suffering from severe vertigo superinduced by overwork and acute indigestion," said Dr. Bartlett to-day. "He is not suffering from apoplexy as the hospital authorities thought. He will not be able to leave the house to-day, but I think he will be well enough to go to his office to-morrow."

TO AID SAN FRANCISCO.

Newspaper and Mail Deliverers
Raise a Fund of $300.

The New York newspaper and mail deliverers have gone to the relief of their stricken brethren in San Francisco. Their contributions, amounting to $300, are now being forwarded to the coast.

The collection was taken up by the Newspaper and Mail Deliverers' Union, No. 648, American Federation of Labor. The $300 is the amount up to date realized from contributions now being taken up among members in every district under the jurisdiction of the organization.

FLUNG STONE IN BRIDE'S CARRIAGE

Rejected Suitor's Act Begins
Riot at Wedding in Williamsbridge.

Down the aisle of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, in Driggs avenue, near Maple avenue, Williamsbridge, marched Joseph Dullatto and his bride, cheered by five hundred wedding guests, last evening. The bride was Rosetta Pasquale, prettiest and richest of the eligible girls of the Italian colony in the Bronx. Dullatto is a son of a Bronx hotel man. It was remarked that Frank Tanzanni was not present. He had courted Rosetta Pasquale and lost his suit, but had said he would attend the wedding.

As the bridal couple entered their carriage a stalwart fellow, standing at the curb, hurled a paving stone through the window of the carriage. The screams of the bride aroused the guests to fury.

The driver of the carriage jumped from his box, the team bolted and the bride swooned in her husband's arms. Men ran into the road and caught the man. In front of the church, Tanzanni and two friends fought with enraged guests. A score of shots were fired.

Policeman Grady ran into the thick of the fray and was felled. His club was taken from him, and he was prevented from drawing his pistol. His whistle summoned Detective Titch, who was stunned by a blow, and his club was taken from him.

The pistol shots terrified the patients in Philanthropy Hospital across the street, and Supt. Ward telephoned for the police reserves at the Wakefield Station. They stopped the riot. Tanzanni escaped, but was caught in the woods near by and charged with assault. John Dattacia, of No. 3 Maple avenue, and Nicolo Romano, of No. 25 East Two Hundred and Fourteenth street, were arrested, the former charged with assaulting an officer.

MRS. DAVIS BETTER.

Widow of Confederacy President
Stronger To-Day.

The condition of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the President of the Confederacy, who is ill at the Hotel Gerard, was somewhat improved to-day. She passed a quiet night and gained some strength.

Dr. Robert H. Wylie regards his patient now as in no immediate danger, though pneumonia is practically fatal to a woman of Mrs. Davis's advanced age.

PAINTERS STRIKE, DEFYING UMPIRE

Their Arbiters' Decision Didn't
Suit, So 7,000 Will Quit Work.

In violation of the building trades arbitration agreement and in defiance of a decision by Charles Stewart Smith, to whom their demands upon the bosses were submitted by both sides for adjustment, the 7,000 painters and paperhangers of the Brotherhood of Painters have decided to go on strike. The walk-out will be inaugurated Monday.

Plain painters make $3.50 a day and decorative painters $4. They recently demanded an advance of 50 cents a day each from the Master Painters, Interior Decorators and Cabinet-Makers' Association. Both sides chose ex-President Smith, of the Chamber of Commerce, as umpire. He ordered a reduction of the decorative painters' wages to the same level as the ordinary painters' and rejected the advance demanded.

The men refused to accept his decision.

STABBED IN THE NECK
WALKING WITH FAMILY

Landenbach's Jugular Vein Missed
by Friction of an Inch—Crowd
Beats His Assailant.

Michael Abruzzo was held without bail in Harlem Police Court to-day to await the result of a stab wound in the neck of Edward Landenbach, of No. 212 Second avenue, who is in Harlem Hospital.

Landenbach, his wife and two children, who had been visiting friends until late last night, were walking down Second avenue between One Hundred and Twenty-fourth and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth streets after midnight when they saw a number of Italians in a free-for-all fight. They started to turn back when a man sprang out of a doorway and jabbed a stiletto in Landenbach's neck.

Landenbach fell to the sidewalk and the stabber, who was seen by John Hastings, of No. 249 Second avenue, tried to get away, but Hastings stopped him. Hastings, joined by John Cosgrove, of No. 220 East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, and a dozen other men, a man, who Hastings says was an Italian, grabbed Abruzzo's stiletto and ran away with it. When the police arrived the crowd was using Abruzzo as a football, and when rescued his face had been badly injured by the kicks. At the hospital it was said the stiletto had missed Landenbach's jugular vein by a small fraction of an inch. He will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

SAVED HER CHICKS AT FIRE.

Hen Held Broad Under Wings and Had Tail Burned Off.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 18.—Police of Mamaroneck and Larchmont are trying to get a clue to an incendiary who set fire to a large stable on the Henry P. Smith country place, between Larchmont and Mamaroneck, early to-day.

The stable was entirely destroyed and the only thing saved was a hen with a brood of chicks which were carried out by a fireman. The hen's tail was burned off, but she had not forsaken her chicks, for when the fireman found her she was protecting them with her wings from the flames.

Buy at Brills' the Clothes You Want At the Prices You Want to Pay.

Whether you pay $10 or $35 you can get at Brills' a BETTER SUIT at the PRICE than anywhere else in New York. That's BECAUSE Brill Brothers are content with smaller profits, depending rather on volume of business to make money.

BECAUSE great wholesalers are keen for Brill accounts, which run so big that wholesalers can sell goods to Brill Brothers at much lower prices than they can sell to smaller concerns.

BECAUSE close mill connections and controlled tailoring organizations enable Brill Brothers to purchase materials and manufacture them at LESS COST than any manufacturing retailer (or wholesaler either for that matter) can possibly do it.
